

Challenged By Change –

Change is a constant companion in our fast-paced lives.

_____ of marriages end in divorce.

Eighty to Ninety-two percent of our churches in America are on a plateau or are declining.

We must remember... God is still _____ and God _____.

"For I am the Lord, I change not." – Malachi 3:6

Malachi 3:6 was spoken in a time of great change:

- Worship had become flippant and casual as people gave their left-overs to God.
- The moral law of God was being disregarded, especially concerning marriage.
- The Lord's command to tithe was being ignored to the economical detriment of the nation.
- And neither priest nor people took seriously the threat of approaching judgment.
- In that kind of world, the Lord was reminding and warning His people that He had not changed.

We must _____ great dreams!

"Do not call to mind the former things, or ponder things of the past. Behold, I will do something new." – Isaiah 43:18-19

We must _____ what can be!

"By faith he left Egypt not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing Him who is unseen." – Hebrews 11:27
