

Radical Urgency

“Sin is crouching at your door. It’s like a wild animal and its desire is to take you out.” – Genesis 4:7

“For my people have committed two evils. They have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, to build for themselves cisterns, broken cisterns that hold no water.” – Jeremiah 2:13

“What injustice did you find in me? God says, that you went far from me and that you walked after emptiness and as a result you became empty?” – Jeremiah 2:4

“It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with sons. What son is there whom his father does not discipline. But if you are without discipline of which all have become partakers then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Furthermore we have earthly fathers that discipline us and we respected them. Shall we not much rather be subject to the Father and the Spirit and live. For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them. But he disciplines us for our good that we might share in his holiness. All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful but sorrowful. Yet to those who have been trained by it afterwards it yields the peaceful fruits of righteousness.” – Hebrews 12:7-11

“Narrow is the way that leads to life. And few are going to find it.” “Broad is the road that leads to destruction.” – Matthew 7:13-14

“Lord, I want you to show me how long I’m going to live. Show me the length of my days.” “God, show me the length of my days and reveal to me that my life is just like a breath.” – Psalm 39:4

*“Going through cancer in many ways has been one of the best things that has ever happened in my life as far as my walk with Christ.” “Suffering! It’s so beautiful.”
- Dr. John Piper*

“Consider it all joy when you encounter various trials.” – James 1:2
